AMENDS GENERAL INCOME TAX REGULATIONS

The Council of Ministers' Decree No 6, dated 19 January 1952, amends general income tax regulations as follows:

Individuals who entered a producers' cooperative during 1951, or not later than 31 March 1952, do not have to pay 1951 general income tax on income derived from property, i.e., land and livestock, brought into the cooperative.

Workers in industry, mining, and transportation, and permanent employees of state farms who leased or sold their farms to the state before taxes were levied do not have to pay 1951 general income tax. If the lease or sale was made after the levying of taxes but before the harvest, 1952 general income tax on the property will be canceled.

Beginning 1 January 1952, houses used exclusively as private residences by the owners will be omitted in calculating taxable income. Profit-sharing tenants' general income tax liability ceases; the tax previously paid by them must be levied on the landlord.

Horses and mules will be taxed as follows:

No of Horses or Mules	Tax (forints)
1	500
2	1,200
3	3,000
4	4,800

The tax for five or more mules or horses is 2,000 forints per head.
